In SCIENCE:

We understand that humans and animals have different features and they need to stay healthy in order to adapt and survive!

We understand that living things grow and know what they need to survive!

We understand everyday materials have different properties and are suitable for different purposes!

We understand that weather changes with the seasons and affects our physical locality!

In KUW/Science:

We are explorers

We are investigators