

In PE and GAMES:

We learn to control our bodies when performing sequences, travelling and expressing ourselves!

We develop skills allowing us to improve in game situations and when cooperating with others!

We understand the importance of team work and communication!

We develop our own skills in order to perform and compete!

